Lorita Shellman Will Wed Fred Lincoln, Jr., Nov. 7

Grandfather of the bride, Dr. Howard Campbell, will assist at the ceremony when Miss Lorita Shellman weds Fred A. Lincoln Jr., on Nov. 7.

Dr. Campbell, who has served as a Presbyterian missionary in Siam for 40 years, married Miss Shellman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Shellman, 2567 Sonoma Ave., in 1933. He will give the benediction and prayer at the November rites.

Miss Shellman is a graduate of Torrance High School and attended El Camino Junior College. At the high school, she organized the Chess Club and was a member of the Red Cross Divers Club, and California Scholarship Federation.

Lincoln, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Lincoln Sr., 1229 Cota Ave., also is a Torrance High School graduate. He attended Compton and El Camino junior colleges and during the war served as an instructor of advance fighter pilots at Williams Air Base in Chandler, Ariz.

Now a captain in the Air Force Reserve, he is engaged locally in business with his father.

The couple plan to begin married life at a home in Torrance.

PLANS NOVEMBER WEDDING . . . Miss Lorita Shellman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Shellman, 2567 Sonoma Ave., revealed news this week of her betrothal to Fred A. Lincoln Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Lincoln Sr., 1229 Cota Ave. The young couple, both graduates of Torrance High School, will exchange marriage vows Nov. 7 at the Christian Church. After-Game Dance Slated By 'Y' Group

Debonaires "Y" club will sponsor an after-game dance tomorrow night following the San Bernardino football game. Site of the dance will be the local YWCA building, 2320 W. Carson St.

All Torrance High School students and alumni, and all Y-Teens and their friends are invited to attend the 10:30 to 11:45 p.m. affair. Dancing will be to record music.

A small admission charge will start a fund to buy a phonograph for the local "Y."

Club members helping with arrangements include Shirley Atchely, Marilyn Baer, Dona Fuller, Madeline Goerke, Jackie Johnson, Sylvia Martinez, Sue McWald, Karen Ness, Sandy Ness, Joan Twiss, Shirley York, Maureen Matthews, and Marilyn Meek.

Board Honors School Heads

Board of Education members honored school administrators at an annual "get-acquainted" tea held Sunday of last week at the Board of Education building, 2335 Plaza del Amo.

Mixed bouquets of fall flowers combined with white candles made a colorful setting for the affair, attended by about 50 people.

Hosts were Board members Judge and Mrs. John Shidler, and Messrs. and Mrs. Mark Wright, Carl Steele, Rollin Smith, and William Tolson. They were assisted by Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Hull and Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Ingram.

Presiding at the tea table were Mesdames Wallace B. Magner, Vernon Sheblak, Herman Schick, and Charles Creeluis.

'Stork Story' FROM TORRANCE MEMORIAL HOSPITAL

Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Elliott, 1053 W. 225th St., are now parents of their first child, Steve Leon. The new baby, whose father is a maintenance mechanic at American Rock Wool Corp., weighed 8 lbs., 14 1/2 oz. when born Sept. 18 at 1:21 p.m. Grandparents are Messrs. and Mesdames Karl Jackley and Harry Elliott of Wilmington.

A 7 lb. baby, Regino, has joined Charlie T. Jr., and Christine, 22 months, to complete the household of Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Villegas, 2337 W. 203rd St. He was born Sept. 19 at 2:15 a.m. Father is employed at Columbia Steel; grandparents are Mrs. Soledad Villegas, 2235 W. 203rd St., and Mr. and Mrs. Trinidad Acero, Tijuana, Mex.

Born Sept. 20 at 7:35 a.m. was the second child of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Riffel, 1104 Hickory St. The 8 lb., 4 oz. Debra Lorenz joins a brother, Dennis Warren, 22 months. Father is employed at Virtue Bros. Mfg. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Goodwater, Hawthorne; and Mrs. Josephine Riffel, Inglewood, are grandparents.

Also parents of a second child are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilson, 4922 Hickman St.; their second daughter, Bonnie Lynn, was born Sept. 19. Father of the new baby and three-year-old Diane is employed at Standard Oil in El Segundo, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Wilson of Hawthorne and Mrs. Olive Stogall, 4922 Hickman St., are grandparents.

GOLD STAR MOMS TO NAME DELEGATE FOR STATE MEETING

Delegate to attend the state meeting of American Gold Star Mothers, Inc. in San Francisco Oct. 8 will be selected next Wednesday, Oct. 1, by the local chapter of the organization.

Meeting will be held at 2 p.m. at the local American Legion Hall.

Plans for the potluck dinner to be held Oct. 21 in Redondo Beach in honor of the "dads" of the chapter, will be completed at the meet. These dinners are to be an annual event in the chapter's program.

Halldale PTA Selects Heads

Fourteen new committee chairmen were ratified at last week's meeting of the Halldale Parent-Teacher Association, held at the Normandale Recreation Center.

New leaders include Mesdames A. E. Huggins, publicity; Victor Carthrae, music; John Blackmon, youth; Walter Schwass, health; David Goolsby, child welfare; Blaine Gipner, magazine; E. R. Martin, ways and means; Wayne Harvey, assistant ways and means.

F. W. Andrews, sunshine; Robert Fraser, legislation; Claude Robinson, juvenile protection; E. Sabido, hospitality; A. G. Schilling, refreshments; and F. C. Myron, treasurer.

Next meeting of the Halldale PTA will be held today. Theme for the coming year will be: "Building Good Citizens."

BETSY ROSS CLUB SPONSORS BAZAAR NEXT SATURDAY

Annual bazaar and steak dinner will be held next Saturday, Sept. 27, at the Masonic Temple, 1321 1/2 Sartori Ave., by the Betsy Ross Club.

Bazaar will be open to the public at 1 p.m., and dinner will be served from 5 to 7 p.m. Dinner tickets, at $1.50 for adults and 75 cents for children under 12, may be purchased from members or at the door the day of the event. Edna Babcock is chairman for the event.

Featured at the bazaar will be embroidered and crocheted work; a food booth; cards and stationery; and a White Elephant booth.

Dorothy Moore is chairman of the fancy work booth, which will sell gay aprons, tea towels and pot-holders, pillow cases, guest towels, and crocheted and knitted garments.

Cakes, pies, candy, and other dishes will be sold at the home-cooked food booth of which Margaret Raymond is chairman. Myrtle Clayton will sell cards of all kinds, note paper, stationery, and children's books.

Surprise packages will be on sale of the White Elephant booth, under the supervision of Mildred Edwards.

A look into the future will be an added attraction from 1 to 4 p.m.; a fortune-teller will do tea leaf reading during those hours.

Potluck Dinner To Carry Out PTA 'Family' Theme Thursday

With "Families Are Our Business" theme in mind, Torrance Elementary Parent Teacher Association will hold a potluck dinner tonight, 5:30 o'clock, at Torrance Park for all families of students.

Plans for this first regular meeting of the school year were made Wednesday of last week when the executive board met at the Marcelina Ave. home of Mrs. Hartley Carr, president.

Persons whose last-name initials begin with A to K are asked to bring hot dishes to serve 10. Initials L to R will bring cold salads to serve 12, and initials S to Z will bring cake to serve 12. Each family is to bring table service.

PTA will serve coffee, and all board members are to furnish hot dishes. Hostesses for the evening will be the seventh and eighth grade room mothers. Short business session will follow the dinner.

Board members also planned a teacher and parent discussion at the school Tuesday, Sept. 23, 7:30 to 8:30 p.m.

Sept. 30 was selected as date for a paper and magazine drive. "We urge parents and children to help this drive by saving their papers," said Mrs. Carr.

Two new chairmen, Mesdames F. R. Miller, parent education, and Edward G. Ludwig, character and spiritual education, have been added to the PTA.

Seaside Folk To Be Feted At Breakfast

Get-acquainted breakfast in patio setting will be held by the Seaside Elementary School Parent-Teacher Association Wednesday, Oct. 1, for the people of Torrance Gardens, Seaside Ranchos, and Seaside Heights.

Scene of the 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. affair will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Steinwach, 5320 Sharynne Lane, Seaside Ranchos.

"Everyone in the school area is invited whether they have children in school or not," said Mrs. Louis J. Gandsey, publicity chairman. "Anyone who needs transportation may call Frontier 5-1021."

Townsend Club Plans Friday Night Dance

Regular Friday night dance sponsored by the Townsend Club will hold forth tomorrow night at the Woman's Club House, 1422 Encragua Ave. Dance time is set for 8 p.m.

There is no admission charge, but donations will be accepted. Refreshments will be served.
